

The following will be posted and maintained on the County's Website and at each building where County services are provided directly to the public. In regard to Commissioners Court meetings, the applicable information will be included on the agenda posted for each meeting.

POLICY ON INFORMATION REGARDING ACCESSIBILITY FOR PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

It is the intent of McLennan County that its services be accessible to persons with disabilities. Depending on the County service or program involved and the nature of the person's disability, various auxiliary aides and services are available. These may include, but are not necessarily limited to: auxiliary aids and services; sign language interpretation; personal assistance; conversion of information into an alternate format; and/or regarding information aloud for a person with a disability.

Please take notice of the following contacts:

All meetings of the McLennan County Commissioners Court are intended to be accessible to person with disabilities. If you need an auxiliary aid or services, please contact the County Judge's Office at (254) 757-5049 or at regan.copeland@co.mclennan.tx.us before the date of the meeting. Assistive listening devices are available at the Courtroom.
